Artist quotes from the Prison Arts Program

I would like to say thank you for the opportunity to express myself, thank you.

I would like to make a change in my life and in someone else's.

—Christopher Pérez

What good is having a voice if no one can hear you? Being in prison silences artists. Keeping us from getting our messages and visions of self-expression out for all to see. Which is why I am grateful for the Prison Arts Program for giving those who have been silenced a platform to express ourselves.

I am art.

—Pedro Colón

Everything inside of me comes alive when I am dwelling in my artwork. No matter the moment, art is my serenity. I am so grateful to be a part of such a great program.

—Natasha Kinion, Alumni Artist

It is a blessing attending the Prison Arts Program. I am ready to learn more, to draw more art that can express my life and the lives of other people.

—Julio Rodriguez

Every day I use art as a means to escape ... and the Prison Arts Program is helping me get that much closer to true, absolute freedom.

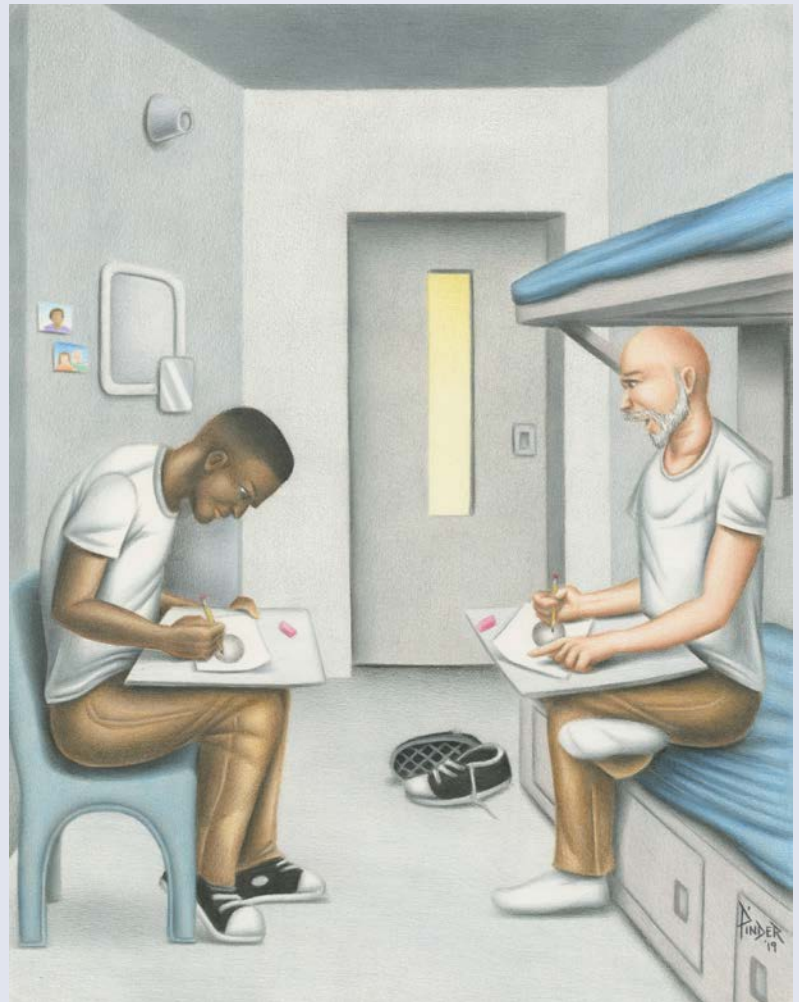

—Jose Bobé

Participation in the Prison Arts Program has been a key piece of my rehabilitation.

—Jeffrey Schare

Prison removes everything you ever loved or cared for in life, but creativity can never be taken away.

—James Pinder

It is our saving grace. Whoever supports Prison Arts supports healing, change, beauty and growth.

—Tracie Bernardi, Alumni Artist

Artwork gives me an outlet and a way to express my thoughts as I work on my Recovery and Rehabilitation. The Prison Arts Program provides me with an outlet to share my artwork with the world and helps me grow as an artist in technique and with ideas.

—James Matthewson

Art gives me a chance to be with my thoughts and figure out things I did not even know I wanted to say.

—Damian Campanella
